PLA-D-14-01427

Title: A unified scheme of correlations using linear relative entropy

Highlights

- We propose a unified view of correlations in a two qubit system.

- The linear relative entropy is used to quantify total, quantum and classical correlations.

- We discuss the relationship among the different types of correlations in a two qubit system.